Summus Collis

Roosevelt High School

Ypsilanti, Michigan

June 1 1951

1925 marked the last year that students of Normal College training school were called Hilltoppers. The new building was completed then and the Rough Riders were born. Yet the class of '51 feels that the school's position above the rest of the town makes the name of our annual, Summus Collis, still appropriate. We also believe that our climb along the path of learning and living together at Roosevelt has finally reached the top of the hill with the coming of June 1951.

history

We began our high school days way back in 1947 as a class of seventy ambitious freshmen. Although we still had many social restrictions, we were delighted at being allowed to go to fun nites and dime dances. My, how important we felt though, when at the spring party, our first school dance, we made our debut into Roosevelt society. As we took our place in high school life, we even succeeded in getting our candidate for student council vice-president, Don Potter, elected.

As sophomores, we were put through our paces by the class of '50 at the Sophomore Reception. It was that year that we put on our first big party the "Winter Whirl" and in the spring we threw the "Cotton Ball". On the day of our class picnic, we all hopped aboard a bus bound for Walled Lake where we spent the afternoon at the amusement park.

We started off 1949 by initiating the class of '52 as they carried out our orders at the Sophomore Reception. In March we tried our hand at play production. Later, in June, we tackled the job of sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom. As juniors we achieved ultimate success in the student council campaign by the election of Don Potter to the post of president. Again that year, class picnic day found us enjoying ourselves at Walled Lake.

Class officers Harold Batalucco-president, John Brand-vice-president, Christine Flatt-treasurer, and Edna Caldwell-secretary, led our group through that all-important senior year. Sporting our fads--green sweat shirts and white caps--we carefully protected our rights to the senior stairs. This year we once again tested our dramatic ability in the spring plays. Early in June came the big event of our senior days--the senior trip. We journeyed by boat to Lake Superior, stopping on the return at Mackinac Island. Our hearts were in our throats at the honors assembly as we solemnly relinquished our seats to the up-coming seniors, and watched them take over our places. Finally on June 15, fifty-five of us marched up on to the stage to receive our diplomas, thereby taking our places among the loyal Roosevelt alumni.

The 1950-1951 football squad will lose captain Terry Clark, Harold Battalucco, John Brand, Gordon Wallace, Bill Addison, and Marvin Staplin with the coming of June 1951.

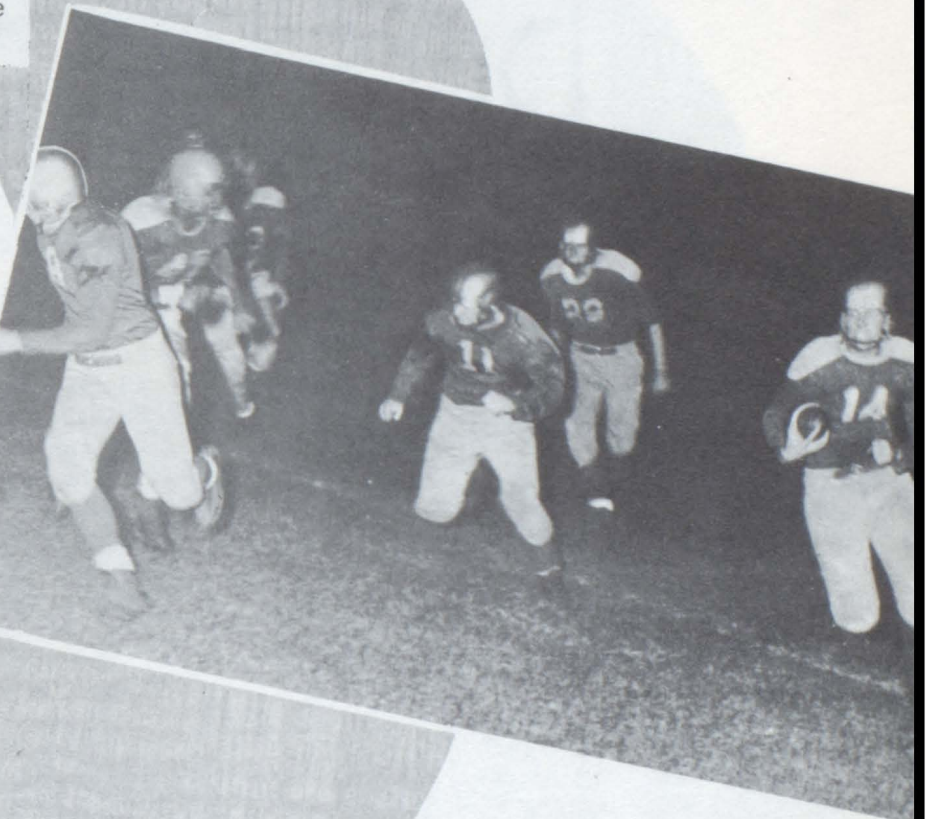

The team's most outstanding play was shown during the Dundee-Roosevelt game in which Roosevelt downed Dundee 18-6 and in the Saline game, which was Roosevelt's highest scoring game of the year, when they defeated Saline 32-20.

Our homecoming game with Lincoln High School this year began a rivalry between the two schools with Lincoln winning the first game 12-6.

Next year's football eleven will be captained by Frank Paduan, a junior who plays tackle.

The Rough Riders won three of thirteen contests with the highlight of the season a drubbing to the Dundee Vikings 46-33 and Allen Park 50-45.

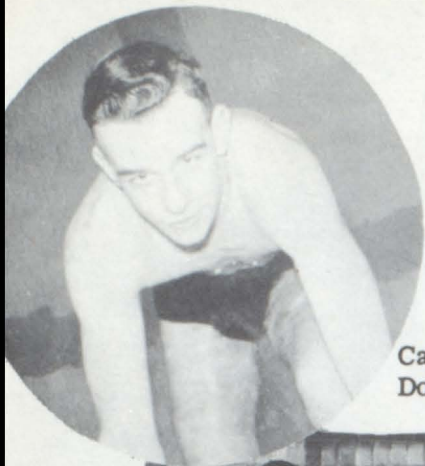

The leading point getters for the team were Gordon Wallace, John Brand, and Bob Prater with 107, 89, and 73 points respectively.

Bob Prater was chosen by his team mates to captain next year's team.

Tom proved to be the star of the state meet with a second place effort while Larry Gray anchored the relay team to a similar position.

The Girls' Athletic Association has initiated a new program this year consisting mainly of a point system, which has never been tried here before. This reorganization took place just before the end of the first semester and went into effect just after the second semester began.

Basically, the club is built around the point system, but different methods of organization have been placed in the new constitution, which was written by the girls. Under this new system, a girl doesn't become a member of the club until she has earned a certain number of points. The sports offered this year were volleyball, basketball, bowling, and baseball, but it is expected more sports will be added to our activity calendar next year.

This completely new system seems to be working out successfully and all the members have great expectations and hopes for the club.

swimming club

The Swimming Club is a comparatively new organization here in Roosevelt. Made up of 28 girls with Miss Mary Irene Bell as the sponsor, it was organized in February of 1950 to promote interest in synchronized swimming.

This year, for the first time a water show, "School Daze," was staged under the direction of Miss Bell and Miss Bernadine Newsom. Proceeds from the aquacade are being used for the purpose of buying suits for future shows.

Also on their schedule was a show for Ypsilanti High School's G. A. C. in the hope that the Ypsilanti group would organize a swimming club. A play-day, combining the talents of Trenton's Aquacades and Roosevelt's club, was planned and executed in April.

student council

In 1950-51 Roosevelt's Student Council enjoyed one of its most successful years, thanks to the cooperation of the whole student body. On behalf of the Council, I wish to congratulate all those who attended meetings, worked on committees and helped to determine and represent opinion, for they have done a fine job in improving our school.

Don Potter, President

The Student Council's activities this year were among the most numerous in its twenty-one years. The small organization of a student representative body in 1930 was the auspicious beginning of a 1950-51 council which has carried on innumerable projects including fun nights, dime dances, magazine sale, homecoming program, and the first intramural boys' sport night.

This year's council consisted of fourteen voting members, plus twelve ex-officio members. Of these twelve members, eight were the committee chairmen: social, Ann Bedford; building, Dick Royal; stage, Bill Addison; assembly, John Parker; noon hour, Laurie Barenow; athletic, Gordon Wallace; health and safety, Tom Schill; magazine sale, Gus Karis.

Thanks to school spirit, the Magazine Sale was a success. The money raised was used to complete the out-fitting of the band.

The Amateur Hour was a chance for the budding young actors of Roosevelt to perform.

The Queen's Court added a colorful touch to the Homecoming.

Fun Nights brought good times for all with swimming, dancing, ping-pong and volley-ball.

It is fun to go hiking and camping, to learn to make pottery, and to tool leather, and what genuine satisfaction there is in planning with your scouts some worthwhile service project! Many students at Roosevelt, both in junior high and senior high, belong to the Boy Scouts or Girl Scouts. These clubs are open to any student who is willing to accept the challenge of the codes of these organizations and will enter wholeheartedly into their activities.

The Girl Scouts sold Christmas cards and cookies to help their camping fund.

The Boy Scouts have about $300 from their paper drives, and they hope to buy Jamboree tents for the whole troop.

The Junior Red Cross at Roosevelt addressed Christmas cards and prepared fifteen gift socks for the patients at the County Infirmary. They made tray favors for the State Hospital and the Infirmary, and they distributed posters and made window displays for the American Red Cross Membership campaign.

Students in Miss. Vint's classes decorated napkins with Washington's Birthday and Easter designs. These were for the veteran's hospitals.

Dixie Smith and Rosemary Borgerson represented Roosevelt at the county meetings in Ann Arbor.

The homeroom representatives cooperated well in these and many other activities.

home workshop

The Roosevelt Home Workshop Club is made up of boys who like to work with tools and machines. Its membership is confined to the junior high school grades though it does sponsor activities that are open to other grade levels. Typical activities are the Christmas Toy Project, the annual Bird House Contest, and a Kite Tournament.

Awards are presented annually at the Honors Assembly to boys with outstanding mechanical and manipulative ability as shown by outstanding success in home workshop activities.

"Wars begin in the minds of men and it is in the minds of men that we should build the defenses for peace."

The main purpose of UNESCO Club, an outgrowth of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization, is to aid in extending an understanding of other peoples among their fellow students. The club has held active membership in Michigan Council for UNESCO for two years.

The club directs an extensive correspondence with foreign students, is engaged in a literature exchange with a Danish school, and has participated in meetings of a model UN Assembly.

The Conservation club was organized to help the students of Roosevelt get a better understanding of the practices of conservation while having a good time. Each year in the spring the club takes a trip to the zoo at Royal Oak. This year the club took a trip ice fishing and one to the museum of Natural History at Ann Arbor.

senior stairs

"Hey you"! Yells resound through the halls, as some scared underclassmen is waylaid by a senior. A fate worse than this couldn't have befallen anyone. He has been caught on THE STAIRS----

The penalty for trespassing here is well known throughout Roosevelt.

A summons is served in Assembly followed by a session of the Court of Common Appeals. Here the defendant may bring his council and plead his case. After the jury has passed the guilty verdict, the sentence is given by the judge. A sentence which is also well known to all.

Small brushes, normally called tooth-brushes, are handed to the culprits. As the eyes of the school focus on the victim, he or she scrubs the whole stair case or rolls a tiny piece of chalk over a length of carpet, spread along the upper hall!
